BSU Coaches

Head Coach
Mike Curfman

Mike Curfman became the ninth head coach in Bemidji State University women's basketball program history when he was hired in the summer of 2005. He is in his fifth season pacing the Bemidji State sidelines and his ninth season overall as a head coach. He is leading the Beavers in a rebuilding process and finished an improved 12-15 overall this past season.

Curfman brings a basketball resume which includes 17 seasons of collegiate coaching experience including eight as a head coach and a total of ten seasons within the NSIC. Previous to BSU, he spent six years guiding the University of Minnesota-Crookston women's basketball program.

Previous to taking over the UMC program, Curfman was an assistant coach at St. Cloud State University (1994-99), serving as Dr. Lori Ulferts' top assistant for five seasons. He also coached under Dr. Ulferts at Moorhead State University (1992-94) as an assistant while serving as the head coach of the junior varsity team. He has presented at a number of camps and clinics and is a member of the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) and the Minnesota State High School League Coaches Association.

Curfman has a wife Michelle, a son Caleb and a daughter Emily.

Camp Director
Assistant Coach
Krissi Super

Assistant Coach, Krissi Super, is in her third season at Bemidji State. She also serves as Head Women's Golf Coach at BSU.

Before coming to BSU, Super was in the high school ranks, with two years experience as Assistant Boys Basketball Coach and Head Volleyball Coach at Wyndmere High School in North Dakota. She was also a Communication Arts/Literature Instructor at Lumberjack High School in Bemidji.

On the basketball court, Super was a member of the 3-time Division II National Championship Basketball Team at the University of North Dakota. During her high school career at Badger-Greenbush-Middle River, Super compiled 2,804 points in her career which sits her in tenth place on the all-time scorers list for Minnesota girls basketball.

Super is also the founder and director of Super Camps, which began in June 1997. She organizes and instructs Super Hooper Basketball camps for boys and girls grades K-6 in northwestern Minnesota.

Super's husband, Jeremy Popp, is Head Softball Coach at BSU. They reside in Bemidji with their rescued pets.
